

POSITION VACANCY

WYOMING LEGISLATIVE SERVICE OFFICE

Position Title: Legislative Research Fellowship

Position Overview: The Legislative Service Office (LSO) is the professional non-partisan staff office for the Wyoming Legislature. The primary mission of the LSO is to help members of the Wyoming Legislature identify and articulate legislative issues, research and analyze information related to those issues, and provide potential policy solutions.

The purpose of the Legislative Fellowship Program is to attract and provide entry level experience during a 4-month fellowship to promising graduate or law students with an interest in a staff career dealing with the legislative process and public policy development. Fellows will work alongside LSO Research and Evaluation Division analysts. Candidates for the Fellowship include students fulfilling internship or practicum requirements in a master's degree program in public administration, economics, business administration, political science, or other related field, or the study of law. The prospective Fellow could also be a recent graduate of a graduate program or law school. No prior work experience in the policy arena is required.

Position Details: Staff must be available to work 12+ regular hours a week during the fellowship. While the position is not a paid position, Fellows will receive a stipend.

Application: Electronically send a cover letter, resume, writing sample, references, and post-secondary grade transcripts, in PDF format, to Abigail Boudewyns, Research and Evaluation Administrator, at abigail.boudewyns@wyoleg.gov.

Application Deadline: October 31, 2021, or until the position is filled.
